The first team to win 10 victory points will win the game. Do not forget to play around with different decks and different strategies as you play your first game. But remember, make sure that you're playing around with different decks and different strategies before the event starts, so that you can identify how you want to play your team and have a fun experience. If you win a round of victory points, you can reward yourself with a deck. You can buy a deck from the store or you can receive it as a prize from a contest. But each deck is only given out at one event per team. For more info on how to play in the season, click here.
